

SENGUNTHAR Daily News

06-09-2024/SEC/DN/005

The faculty members of the EEE Department have completed the Innovation Ambassador Training on "Reskilling" organized by the Ministry of Education's Innovation Cell and AICTE. The training was conducted as part of the IIC Calendar Year initiatives. This program's main aim was to enhance skills and foster innovation among educators.

A communication skills development class was organized for final-year IT students to enhance their professional communication abilities. The session focused on improving verbal, non-verbal, and interpersonal skills essential for career success.

The EEE and ECE Departments conducted the 10th day of placement training focused on Electrical Machines. The session was led by experts from Promho Company, Chennai, providing valuable industry insights. This training aims to prepare students for upcoming job placements.

SENGUNTHAR Daily News

06-09-2024/SEC/DN/005

A placement training session on "Inversion of Control" under Advanced Java was conducted for final-year CSE students. The session aimed to deepen students' understanding of key concepts in Java programming. This initiative is part of the department's effort to enhance students' technical skills for job readiness.

Mechanical Engineering students participated in a Skill Development Program to attain hands-on practical experience. The program aimed to enhance technical skills through real-world applications. This initiative supports students' readiness for industry challenges.

During the Skill Development Hour, the Electro Care Unit provided training on mobile servicing for third-year ECE students. The session offered hands-on experience in troubleshooting and repairing mobile devices. This training aimed to enhance students' practical skills in electronics servicing.

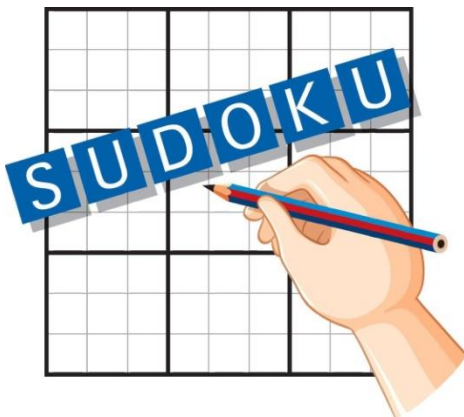

SENGUNTHAR Daily News

06-09-2024/SEC/DN/005

Second-year Civil Engineering students engaged in a session on Compass Surveying, focusing on the observation of bearings. The training provided practical insights into the use of compasses for accurate land measurements. This initiative aimed to strengthen students' surveying skills through hands-on learning.

The Department of EEE organized a Skill Development class for third-year EEE students on LED lamp design and assembly. The session was conducted by Mrs. R. Gokila, Assistant Professor of EEE, Nearly 40 students were participated. This training aimed to enhance students' practical knowledge in LED technology.

	2		6	4		3	7	5	1	2	9
			1		3	9	6	4		5
3	6	4	9	7	5						4
6	9		2	1	4	5	8	7			6
1		2		5	7	4	9	6		1
4	7	5	8	6	9	3	2		4	7
2	1		5	8	6		4		2		1
7			4	9	1		5		6	7	3
5		8	7	3		6	1	9		8	5
3	2	4	1		8	9	6	5			4
	6	1	9		5		7	4		6	8
	5	7		4		8	2				9