ALL INDIA THAL SAINIK CAMP

The All India Thal Sainik Camp (TSC), considered the toughest in the NCC, is a 12-day camp held annually in Delhi, with cadets selected from 17 directorates after three pre-TSC camps. Graduates of TSC match Indian Army soldiers in map reading and firing skills. The camp boosts performance in competitive exams like CAPF and enhances knowledge of military life, confidence, and willpower. Sengunthar's senior wing of NCC Army Wing is attended the camp for the first time.
